

comparison method) and of humidity measurement instruments with calculation measurement uncertainty and with issuing calibration certificates of international form. The laboratory had successfully participated in bilateral comparison with accredited calibration laboratory of Germany. And now it as a pilot-laboratory organizes and conducts comparisons in temperature field on national level for second-level calibration laboratories.

Marina Denisova is a trainer on implementation of calibration methods and on calculation measurement uncertainty in the field of temperature.

She works as a local expert on temperature in the frame of PTB project in Central Asia (Tajikistan).

She participates as a technical expert and evaluator in accreditation of calibration and testing laboratories.

She is a member of subcommittee «Metrology» of Kyrgyz Center of accreditation and participates in development of joint documents in the field of metrology and accreditation.

She was awarded with Honorable Certificate of Ministry of economy and antimonopoly policy (Order № 227 from August 29, 2012) for impeccable and honest work, professionalism and individual contribution into development of economy of the Kyrgyz Republic, Honorable Certificates of Kyrgyzstandard and Kyrgyz Center of accreditation.

She took part in working group on development of new revision of «Metrology Law» of the Kyrgyz Republic and other government statements in the field of metrology.

Marina Denisova is a member of TC 1.10 COOMET «Temperature and thermal physics» from Kyrgyzstan. Since 2014 in the framework of TC 1.10, she is a coordinator of COOMET project «Development of COOMET recommendation «Calibration of resistance thermometers by comparison». In continuance of above mentioned project, COOMET project «Comparisons for measurements in the calibration of industrial platinum resistance thermometers» is opened.

In accordance with above I apply for awarding Marina Denisova the distinguished title «Honorary Metrologist of COOMET».

Sincerely yours,
Director

B. Adanbaev

